FOREWORD
Dissent Is the Highest Form of Patriotism: Chinese Dissidents and the Legacy of Liu Xiaobo
Emile Kok-Kheng Yeoh

INTRODUCTORY COMMENTARY
Liu Xiaobo as the Spiritual Rival of Xi Jinping
Albert Ho Chun-yan

PARTY-STATE, DISSENT AND HUMAN RIGHTS
The Policy Programme and Human Rights Position of the Xi Jinping Administration
Joseph Yu-shek Cheng
Liu Xiaobo and “Charter 08” – Freedom of Expression and Cultural Relativism
Patrick Kar-wai Poon
Xi Jinping’s Religious Freedom Policy vs Human Rights
Beatrice K.F. Leung

REGIONAL REACH OF AUTHORITARIANISM
Hong Kong No More: From Semi-democracy to Semi-authoritarianism
Benny Yu-tung Tai
Human rights in Hong Kong: One Country looms as Two Systems Fade
Chris Young
Hong Kong Youth Radicalization from the Perspective of Relative Deprivation
Łukasz Zamecki
The Radicalization of Xinjiang: Its Roots and Impact on Human Rights
Roy Anthony Rogers
Parliamentary Representation in the Macau Special Administrative Region: A Quantitative Analysis of Roll Call Voting Behavior in the 5th Legislative Assembly, 2013-2017
Jinhyeok Jang

EAST ASIA’S DESPOTIC OTHER: DPRK IN COMPARISON
Post-Communist Transition Revisited: The North Korean Regime in a Comparative Authoritarian Perspective
Soyoung Kwon

POSTSCRIPT
Brave New World Meets Nineteen Eighty-four in a New Golden Age: On the Passing of Liu Xiaobo, Advent of Big Data, and Resurgence of China as World Power
Emile Kok-Kheng Yeoh