Culture, Language, and Literature: Papers in Honour of Thailand-Malaysia Cooperation

The Languages and Linguistic Brownbag Colloquium Series for Research and Development (L&L-BCSfoRD)

S.M. ZAKIR
MOHAMAD SALEEH RAHAMAD
KEMTONG SINWONGSUWAT

Faculty Of Liberal Arts, Prince Of Songkhla University, Hatyai, Thailand
&
National Writers Association Malaysia (PENA)
EMPOWERING MALAY LITERATURE PAPER FOR EDUCATION IN MALAYSIA

Mohamad Mokhtar Abu Hassan (Ph.D),
Tengku Intan Marlina Tg. Mohd. Ali (Ph.D),
Salinah Ja’afar (Ph.D),
Madiawati Mamat @ Mustaffa

Academy of Malay Studies
University of Malaya
MALAYSIA

Introduction

Literature it part of life. Every language and culture has its own genre as a tool for learning, understanding and delivering their own thought and belief as a way of life. The Malay language also has its own literature to guide the way of life. Literature is introduced in school to instill passion among students. Malay Literature in Higher School Certificate (HSC) has a long history in Malaysia. Malay Literature was a popular subject in HSC previously. Unfortunately it has lost its popularity now. Students