for the Contribution to the following proposed book

“Why Discourse Matters: Negotiating Identity in the Mediatized World"

Edited by Dr. Monika Kopykowska & Dr. Yusuf Kalyango, Jr.

The subject(s) of the agreement is (are) a work(s) written by the author with the title(s):

Title: Media Discourse as a Double-Edged Sword in Ethnic Integration: Press as Jekyll or Hyde?

By entering into this agreement, the author warrants that the entry(ies) will in no way infringe upon any copyright or proprietary rights of others and that it will not contain anything unlawful, libelous, or be a violation of any right of privacy. The author also agrees to hold the publisher harmless from any and all liability, expenses or damages arising out of the contents of this (these) entry(ies), or the publication of any unlawful matter, excepting, however, any matter added upon the request of the publisher.

In full and final compensation for your contribution and your services as a contributor, the volume editor(s) will send you one (1) free copy of the book, provided by the publisher, when it is published, for your own use and not for resale, regardless of the number of contributions you make for use in the book.

Your execution of this agreement will constitute an exclusive grant to the publisher of a complete release of all publishing and proprietary rights in and to your contribution in book and in nonbook format and in all languages throughout the world, and of the original and all subsequent editions and printings of the book.

The author may use the content that they contributed to this volume in their own publications with other publishing sources at no charge, providing full acknowledgement to this publication is made.
