Introduction

Keywords: community, China town, heritage, identity

The Chinese community in Kuala Lumpur is one of the largest ethnic communities in Malaysia. The presence of Chinese businesses and cultural activities in the area has contributed significantly to the identity and heritage of the neighborhood. This research focuses on understanding the perception of the Chinese community on their identity and their role in preserving the heritage of Kuala Lumpur.

Abstract

"Stakeholders' Perception on Identity of Peking Street Neighborhood, Kuala Lumpur"