INTERVENTION AND NON-INTERVENTION POLICY IDEAS FOR A SOCIAL MARKET ECONOMY IN MALAYSIA
Amin has authored four books – The Social Market Economy: Alternative for Malaysia? (2010), Global Warming and Climate Change: Policy Observation (2011), Sustainability: Human, Environment and Development (2014) and The Foundations of Freedom and Justice: An Introduction Edition (2016). Besides that, he has translated nearly 10 books including What is Seen and What is not Seen by Frederic Bastiat (2012) and Economics in One Lesson (2013) by Henry Hazlitt. He is currently working on the translation of the collected works of a prominent national historian, Emeritus Professor Khoo Kay Kim and the over 1,000 pages three-volume biography of Abraham Lincoln, written by the Pulitzer Prize winner, Carl Sandburg, while residing in Manhattan, New York, United States since 2014. Since 2010, he has appeared on numerous public forums and national and private television talk shows to discuss various political, economic and social issues. Hundreds of his writings on current issues were published by mainstream and alternative media.

Amin is also an alumni of Asia Institute for Political Economy (AIPE), University of Hong Kong – Georgetown University; International Academy of Leadership (IAL), Germany; and American Council for Young Political Leaders (ACYPL). He is now working on developing his newly-founded think tank, Institute for Leadership and Development Studies (LEAD), since January 2014, which promotes the principles of market solutions to public policy challenges of Malaysia.

Edmund Terence Gomez is Professor of Political Economy at the Faculty of Economics & Administration, University of Malaya. He specializes in state-market relations and the linkages between politics, policies and business development. He has also held appointments at the University of Leeds (UK) and Murdoch University (Australia) and served as Visiting Professor at Kobe University (Japan), the University of Michigan (Ann Arbor) and University of California (San Diego). Between 2005 and 2008, he served as Research Coordinator at the United Nations Research Institute for Social Development (UNRISD), in Geneva, Switzerland. Other academic appointments include Visiting Fellowships at the Australian National University, Canberra and at the Nordic Institute of Asian Studies, Denmark.

Geoffrey Williams is currently a Professor at the ELM Graduate School, HELP University, Malaysia. He was Deputy Vice Chancellor of Universiti Tun Abdul Razak (UNIRAIZAK) (2012-14). A graduate of the University of Cambridge, he has held academic positions at London Business School, Pembroke College University of Oxford and the University of London. Professor Williams is a Fellow of the Chartered Management Institute UK and was elected Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts in 2004 and Fellow of the Malaysian Institute of Management in 2010. He was a Visiting Fellow at the Penang Institute 2015-16 specializing in higher education management and is currently a member of the Advisory Board of the Faculty of Industrial Management at University Malaysia Pahang (UMP).