SPECIAL ISSUE: HOST-SITE INSTITUTIONS, PRODUCTION LINKAGES AND TECHNOLOGICAL CAPABILITIES: A STUDY OF AUTOMOTIVE, CLOTHING AND SEMICONDUCTOR FIRMS IN CHINA AND SOUTHEAST ASIA

GUEST EDITORS: RAJAH RASIAH, FUKUNARI KIMURA AND SOTHEA OUM

Acknowledgements

Articles

Host-site institutions, production networks and technological capabilities
Rajah Rasiah, Fukunari Kimura and Sothea Oum

Industrial upgrading in global production networks: the case of the Chinese automotive industry
Yan Sheng Li, Xin Xin Kong and Miao Zhang

Host-site support, foreign ownership, regional linkages and technological capabilities: evidence from automotive firms in Indonesia
Rajah Rasiah, Rafat Beigpoor Shahrivar and Abdusy Syakur Amin

Auto and car parts production: can the Philippines catch up with Asia?
Rene E. Oheneo

Intra-industry trade, product fragmentation and technological capability development in Thai automotive industry
Patarapong Intarakumnerd and Kriengkrai Techakanont

The transformation of the clothing industry in China
Miao Zhang, Xin Xin Kong and Santha Chenayah Ramu

The garment industry in Laos: technological capabilities, global production chains and competitiveness
Vanitha Nolintha and Idris Jajri

Multinationals, technology and regional linkages in Myanmar’s clothing industry
Tin Htoo Naing and Su-Fei Yap

China’s semiconductor industry in global value chains
Xin Xin Kong, Miao Zhang and Santha Chenayah Ramu

Institutional support, regional trade linkages and technological capabilities in the semiconductor industry in Malaysia
Rajah Rasiah and Yap Xiao Shan

Institutional support, technological capabilities and domestic linkages in the semiconductor industry in Singapore
Rajah Rasiah and Yap Xiao Shan

Epilogue: implications for promoting firm-level technological capabilities
Rajah Rasiah, Fukunari Kimura and Sothea Oum
Asia Pacific Business Review

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Asia Pacific Business Review is a double blind refereed journal. Articles submitted to the journal should be original contributions and should not be under consideration for any other publication at the same time. If another version of the article is under consideration by another journal, or has been, or will be published elsewhere, authors should clearly state this.

To be considered for publication in the journal, the Editors must receive two separate Word documents: 1) Cover page with full details of the authors including: details of the author’s institutional affiliation; full address and contact information; exact length of the article; brief (5-8 line) biographical description and any acknowledgments; and 2) Manuscript without any author identification and that fully matches the double blind house style. Submissions must be sent electronically in .DOC format and as compiled files to m.warner@bcs.ac.uk and abpir@city.ac.uk, stating ABPIR as the subject with no author identification/name on the manuscript emailed attachment. Articles should be no longer than 7,000–8,000 words (excluding notes, figures, tables and references). All manuscripts must be accompanied by a letter which indicates briefly why the article is suitable for publication in the Journal and fits its remit. The article should begin with an indicated and italicised abstract of around 100 words, describing the main arguments and conclusions of the article, and a list of 3-4 key words. The following sections should be covered in your article: Introduction, Literature, Search/Review, Theory, Hypotheses/Propositions or Research Questions, Methodology, Data analysis, Discussion, Implications: for theory, practice, readers, business and management practice, Conclusions, References, Endnotes (making clear confirmation of this should be included with the manuscript.

Books for review should be sent to Keith Jackson, The Centre for Financial and Management Studies (CfFMS), SOAS, University of London, 30 Russell Square, WC1X 0HE, UK and LI Xue Cunningham, Centre for Research on Asian Management, Cass Business School, City University, 106 Bunhill Row, London, UK.

Tables and Figures:
Each table and figure must be followed by a heading, and be referred to in the text. Tables should be kept to a minimum and contain only essential data, should be consecutively numbered in Arabic numerals and should be prepared using tabs. Diagrams, charts, and graphs should be consecutively numbered in Arabic numerals. Tints and colours should be avoided, use open designations of tables and figures.

All tables and figures should be provided at the end of the paper and should be consecutively numbered in Arabic numerals with indication in the text of ‘Insert x here’. All diagrams, charts, maps and graphs should be in uncompressed .TIFF or .JPEG formats. If figures are provided in hard copy only, they will be scanned and therefore must be supplied on good quality white paper and contain no handwriting or other marks.

The Editors do not wish to receive separate attachments for graphs or tables, please include these in the Manuscript. Please only send:
1) Cover page with full author details
2) Full manuscript and tables, etc with no author identification

The Editors are delighted that all manuscripts must be accompanied by a letter which indicates briefly why the article is suitable for publication in the Journal and fits its remit. The article should begin with an indicated and italicised abstract of around 100 words, describing the main arguments and conclusions of the article, and a list of 3-4 key words. The following sections should be covered in your article: Introduction, Literature, Search/Review, Theory, Hypotheses/Propositions or Research Questions, Methodology, Data analysis, Discussion, Implications: for theory, practice, readers, business and management practice, Conclusions, References, Endnotes (making clear confirmation of this should be included with the manuscript.

Books for review should be sent to Keith Jackson, The Centre for Financial and Management Studies (CfFMS), SOAS, University of London, 30 Russell Square, WC1X 0HE, UK and LI Xue Cunningham, Centre for Research on Asian Management, Cass Business School, City University, 106 Bunhill Row, London, UK.