Dear Prof Visva,

Firstly, congratulations on your promotion. I apologize for the error in your name however it can be changed before the printing when the Editor contacts me again.

And yes, if they asks us if we want electronic print, I will accept their offer.

> I am pleased to inform you that your manuscript has been ACCEPTED FOR PUBLICATION in Ear, Nose & Throat Journal. Editorial changes may be made to conform with the style and format of the journal and to correct errors in grammar, punctuation, and spelling. You will be contacted by an editor when editing is about to begin, and you will receive galley proofs for your approval prior to publication. It is therefore essential that you inform us of any changes in your contact information.
>
> Only limited corrections to rectify typesetting errors or misstatement of fact caused by editorial alterations may be made on the galley proofs without incurring costs.
>
> Your manuscript may be published both in the print and online versions of ENT Journal, or exclusively online (with an abstract excerpt in the print version). Final determination of publication format will be made during the production process.
>
> We apologize in advance for any delays experienced during the editorial process. Recently, we have received an unusually large number of excellent manuscripts that have been accepted for publication. Hence, we are experiencing delays somewhat longer than usual (currently approaching 2.5 years). We appreciate your patience and look forward to providing you with a high-quality, widely circulated final product.
