Dear Francisco,

I am pleased to be able to tell you than your paper submitted to the 10th European Conference on e-Learning (ECEL 2011) has been accepted for publication and presentation subject to your addressing the issues raised by the reviewer, whose completed review form is attached.

Would you please reformat the paper as recommended in the Style Guidelines. The link for this is: http://academic-conferences.org/style-guidelines.htm

Briefly, the entire document should be in Arial 10pt. The margins should be 2.54cm all round. The main text should be Fully Justified and the titles and headings Left Aligned. The author details should also be left-aligned.

Take out the page numbering.

I would like to have your revised paper back with me by 12th September 2011. If you need more time please let me know. It would be helpful if you could confirm by return that you have received this email and that you will be working on the suggested changes.

You may find the link below useful when preparing your presentation. http://academic-conferences.org/conference-presentation-guidelines.htm

Before returning your final paper please check that you have attended to the following:

1. You have sent me a short biography (maximum 55 words) and a separate jpg photo of the author or authors who will be attending the conference to present the paper. (Do not embed the photo in the biography document – keep them as separate files.)

2. You have signed and returned the copyright form – downloadable from http://academic-conferences.org/ecel/ecel2011/ecel11-glance.htm

3. You have registered to attend the conference online from http://academic-conferences.org/ecel/ecel2011/ecel11-registration.htm (Earlybird registration is available until 1st September 2011).
