TOURISM in Marine Environments
AN INTERDISCIPLINARY JOURNAL

SPECIAL ISSUE
SCUBA DIVING TOURISM
Guest Editors: Ghazali Musa and Kay Dimmock

CONTENTS

Scuba Diving Tourism: Introduction to Special Issue
Ghazali Musa and Kay Dimmock

Diver Characteristics, Motivations, and Attitudes: Chuuk Lagoon
Joanne Edney

Flourishing Through Scuba: Understanding the Pursuit of Dive Experiences
Balvinder Kaur Kler and John Tribe

Exploring Place Attachment: An Underwater Perspective
Emily C. Moskwa

Resource Attributes That Contribute to Nonresident Diver Satisfaction in the Florida Keys, USA
Shona Paterson, Sarah Young, David K. Loomis, and William Obenour

Forming Scuba Diving Environmental Codes of Conduct: What Entry-Level Divers Are Taught in Their First Certification Course
Kelsey M. Johansen and Rhonda L. Koster

Scuba Diving and Marine Conservation: Collaboration at Two Australian Subtropical Destinations
Zan Hammerton, Kay Dimmock, Christine Hahn, Steven J. Dalton, and Stephen D. A. Smith

Dive Tourism in Luganville, Vanuatu: Shocks, Stressors, and Vulnerability to Climate Change
Louise Munk Klint, Min Jiang, Alexandra Law, Terry Delacy, Sebastian Filep, Emma Calgaro, Dale Dominey-Howes, and David Harrison