All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form, or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise, without the prior permission of the publisher.

Perpustakaan Negara Malaysia Cataloguing-in-Publication Data

Printed by: City Reprographic Services, Kuala Lumpur

CONTENTS

Contributors vii

Acknowledgements x

Abbreviations xi

Introduction xiii

Chapter 1 東南アジアから東アジアへの人の移動
日本から見たメレシア華人文学の諸相—
Satoshi MASUTANI

Chapter 2 Migrant Japanese Women in China: Gender Values and Career Development
OOI Shong Gor

MOHD IKBAL Mohd Huda

Chapter 4 Japanese Economic Activities in British North Borneo Prior to World War II
Mieko SUGIMOTO, Ichiro SUGIMOTO and HAMIDIN Abd Hamid

Page dimensions: 612.0x842.0
[Image 0x0 to 612x842]
THE CONTRIBUTORS

Mr. ASMADI Hassan is a lecturer at the Japan Studies Program, Department of East Asian Studies, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, University of Malaya. He has a master’s degree in political science from Keio University, Japan in 2001. He is currently working on factionalism in the Japanese politics for his PhD degree.

Dr. Fumitaka FURUOKA is an Associate Professor at the School of Business and Economics, Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS). His main research interests are the official development assistance (ODA) policy, economic sanctions as well as foreign direct investment. He obtained his Ph.D. from Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM) in 2002. From 1991 to 1999 Fumitaka Furuoka was the Senior Assistant at the Consulate-General of Japan, Penang. From 1999 to 2003 he was a lecturer at the Faculty of Economics and Business, Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (UNIMAS). Fumitaka Furuoka is the author of numerous publications in the field of development economics, international economics and human resource economics, including New Challenges for Japan’s Official Development Assistance (ODA) Policy: Human Rights, Democracy and Aid Sanctions (Penerbit UMS, 2006).

Associate Professor Dr. HAMIDIN Abd Hamid is currently the Executive Director of Asia Europe Institute, University Malaya and also a member of the History Department, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, University Malaya. He received his Ph.D in history from the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London in 2000.

Mr. Ryo HINATA-YAMAGUCHI is currently a doctoral candidate at the University of New South Wales—Australian Defense Force Academy and is a recipient of the Korea Foundation-Korean Studies Association of Australasia Graduate Studies Scholarship. His doctorate dissertation is on the making of a schema for defense planning in North Korea. Mr. Ryo received his Master of Arts degree in Strategic and Defense Studies at the Australian National University in 2006. Since then he has worked at the Sasakawa Peace Foundation in Tokyo as an intern and also as a research associate at the International Crisis...