Betrayal and its Conceptions in the Quranic Context:
An Objective and Analytical Study

Abstract

The researchers outlines two definition of betrayal both in language and idiomatically and mention its places and its derivatives in the Holy Qur’an. Then, the researcher will extrapolate the types of betrayal through the meaning of the verses such as: the betrayal of religion (to be unbeliever), betrayal of nation (Ummah), betrayal of soul and bodies, betrayal of covenant and betrayal of trust of people. After that, the researchers will follow the derivatives of the norm “betrayal” in the Holy Qur’an such as: cunning, deception, espionage, hypocrisy and plan, Finally, the researcher views the samples of betrayal as they were mentioned in the Holy Qur’an with reference to interpreters in order to take the lessons such as: the betrayal of people of Scripture. This research aims to define the norm “betrayal” in its wide-concept as it mentioned in the Holy Qur’an, and to indicate the types of betrayal and also to explain the acts of betayers and their characters and finally to take the lessons of their end and fate.

Key word: betrayal, cunning, deception, espionage, hypocrisy and plan.
