INTHEALTH-D-17-00125R1 : Do the Low-income Urban Population Practice Healthy Dietary Habits?

Dear Dr Abdul Majid

Thank you for making these revisions, and submitting this final version of your manuscript. The Editorial Board have assessed your paper, and are happy to accept it for publication in International Health. Congratulations.

I will now send your paper to our publisher, OUP, so that the proof can be prepared for your approval.

OPEN ACCESS OPTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Authors have the option to publish their paper under the Oxford Open initiative; whereby, for a charge, their paper will be made freely available online immediately upon publication. As part of the licensing process you will be asked to indicate whether or not you wish to pay for open access. If you do not select the open access option, your paper will be published with standard subscription-based access and you will not be charged.

For further information on our Open Access fees see:
www.oxfordjournals.org/our_journals/trstmh/for_authors/manuscript_instructions.html#Open Access option for authors

If you or your co-authors are not already aware of the activities of the Society you might like to visit www.rstmh.org where you will find further information and an application form to join the Society.

Thank you again for submitting your work to this journal. We look forward to receiving further papers from your group.

With kind regards
