This is disproportionately a narrative piece on product development with the usual idea of CSR. What is the Islamic content in this CSR? The paper does not use the endogenous moral/ethical integration as vouched by IJOES. See for instance Choudhury's The Socio-Cybernetic Study of God and the World-System, Ideas Group Inc. Global, Philadelphia, USA, 2014 for the idea of Conscious Corporation Social Responsibility in distilling endogenous value of morality through CCSR.
