β-Glucuronidase inhibitors from Malaysian plants

Sook Yee Liew 3, Yasodha Sivasothy 5, Nimra Naveed Shalik 5, Diyanah Mohd Isa 4, Vannajan Sanghiran Lee 4, M. Istifanah Bujang 5, Shafikah Khaliq 5, Khajalah Awang 5, 6, 7, 8

https://doi.org/10.1016/j.molstruc.2020.128743

Highlights

• Angustine was isolated from Nauclea subdita (Korth.) Steud.

• (E)-labda-8(17),12-dien-15,16-dial was isolated from Alpinia pahangensis Ridley.

• Both compounds exhibited potent β-glucuronidase enzyme inhibitory activities.

• Both compounds were non-competitive inhibitors.

• Angustine showed a lower binding free energy.