

SOUTHEAST ASIAN RELIGION, CULTURE AND ART OF THE SEA

Editors

Hanafi Hussin
MCM Santa Maria
Abraham Sakili
Paul H. Mason

Institute of Ocean and Earth Sciences Monograph No. 6

Institute of Ocean and Earth Sciences
University of Malaya

INSTITUTE OF OCEAN AND EARTH SCIENCES
UNIVERSITY OF MALAYA
2008

IOES Monograph Series No. 6

© Institute of Ocean and Earth Sciences, University of Malaya, 2008
IOES

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced or stored in any form that can be retrieved or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopy, recording or any other means, without written permission from the publisher.

Published by:

Institute of Ocean and Earth Sciences (IOES), University of Malaya
C308, IPS Building, University of Malaya
50603 Kuala Lumpur
Malaysia
Tel: (+603) 7967-4640 / 6995
Fax: (+603) 7967-6994
<http://ioes.um.edu.my>

ISBN 978-967-5148-19-4

Printed by:

City Reprographic Services
No. 2, Jalan Vivekananda
Off Jalan Tun Sambanthan
Brickfields
50470 Kuala Lumpur
E-mail: cityrepro@yahoo.co.uk

CONTENTS

Contributing Authors	iv
Southeast Asian Religion, Culture, and Art of the Sea Hanafi Hussin, MCM Santamaria, Abraham P. Sakili & Paul H. Mason	1
Sustaining Sulu People’s Identity Through Their Culture and Visual Arts Abraham P. Sakili	7
Magpaiti-Bahau: Reunion Between Living and Dead among Bajau Community of Semporna, Sabah, Malaysia Hanafi Hussin	23
Between Two Seas: Integrative Elements in the Pagkanduli Ritual of the Sama Dilaut (Bajau Laut) of Sitangkai Hanafi Hussin & MCM Santamaria	39
Zapin Dance and Music: Malay-Islamic Performative Nuances of the Straits of Malacca Mohd Anis Md Nor	65
Joget Dangkung and Its Survival Among Coastal Malay Society in Riau Archipelago, Indonesia Anastasia Wiwik Swastiwi	77
The Coastal Area of Minangkabau Society, West Sumatra and the Art of Its Performance Indra Utama	85
Tari Saputangan – Handkerchief Dance as a Form of Eternalizing the Integrity and the Identity of the Coastal Minangkabau Society Ernida Kadir	93

CONTRIBUTING AUTHORS

Abraham P. Sakili is professor of art studies and humanities from the University of the Philippines, Diliman. He received his Ph.D. in Philippine Studies from the University of the Philippines in 1999. His dissertation is titled “The Concept of Space and the Spatial Expressions in the Architecture and Other Visual Arts of the Muslims in the Philippines.” Dr Sakili has written several articles for journals and books. His book titled “Space and Identity: Expressions in the Visual Arts and Culture of the Philippines was published by the Asian Center, University of the Philippines in 2003. Dr Sakili is also a visual artist, a painter of Muslim arts.

Anastasia Wiwik Swastiwi is a researcher at Balai Pelestarian Sejarah dan Nilai Tradisional Tanjungpinang, Kepulauan Riau, Indonesia and currently a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Malaya. Her research fields are history and culture of society in Province of Riau, Kepulauan Riau, Jambi and Bangka Belitung, Indonesia. Her research works have been published in many books and national journals.

Ernida Kadir received the degree of M.A. degree in Performance Arts from Gajah Mada University, Yogyakarta. She is lecturer of ethnochoreology at Sekolah Tinggi Seni Indonesia (STSI) Padangpanjang, Indonesia. She is the former head of the Dance Department of STSI and actively participates in national and international seminars, workshops such as the Workshop of Labanotation at Taiwan National University of the Arts and festivals such as the Indonesian Dance Festival and the West Sumatra Dance Festival.

Hanafi Hussin is a senior lecturer in the Department of Southeast Asian Studies at the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, University of Malaya. He received his Ph.D. in Performing Arts Studies from the Malay Studies Academy, University of Malaya in 2007. He has conducted fieldwork in many countries in Southeast Asia such as Malaysia, the Philippines, Thailand Cambodia, Indonesia and Brunei He is currently completing his research of Bajau in Malaysia, Philippines and Indonesia.

Indra Utama is a researcher and choreographer of Minangkabau modern dance. He is president of West Sumatra Dance Alliance (World Dance Alliance – West Sumatra), director of Padangpanjang Cultural Institute (PCI), and lecturer of Minangkabau Dance Technique and Indonesian Performance Studies in Sekolah Tinggi Seni Indonesia (STSI) Padangpanjang. Currently, he is a PhD candidate at the Cultural Centre, University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

MCM Santamaria is associate professor of Asian and Philippine Studies at the Asian Center, University of the Philippines. He also teaches at the Japanese Studies Program of the Ateneo de Manila University. He is currently artistic director of Bunga Dance Link, a group specializing in Southern Philippine dances. He regularly choreographs for Philippine theater productions and writes on the arts for the Philippine Business Mirror.

Mohd Anis Md Nor is Profesor of ethnochoreology and ethnomusicology at the University of Malaya. He is president of World Dance Alliance-Asia Pacific; national advisor to MyDance Alliance (World Dance Alliance-Asia Pacific Malaysia Chapter); member of the International Council for Traditional Music Group on Ethnochoreology; and artist-in-residence/consultant to the Johor Heritage Foundation in Malaysia.