Dear Ashril Yusof, Jay Udani, Annie George, Nurhayati Zainal Abidin:

Please disregard the previous email which was sent in error. Thank you for submitting your manuscript to Food & Nutrition Research. Our reviewers have again considered your paper and they are satisfied.

However, the Editor queries the sample size calculation. In your latest response you detail this in the answer to the reviewer, but you have not changed the text in the manuscript itself. I therefore urge you to revise this part so it becomes clear what data you used to arrive at your sample size.

In the Revisions field, press the Upload File button and locate the file/s from your computer. NB! Please use the Review Discussions panel below the Revisions area to notify the Editor of your revision. Click "Add Discussion" and select the Editor in the participant list. Please also write "Revised version uploaded" in the subject line and add a message in the free text field and press OK.
